TJC offers free legal services to help families who are trying to access health care. Help us celebrate 15 years of our work for justice!

Prizes for Winners

- Gift cards
- Your work will be featured on our website
- Public recognition

Writing and Art Contest

If you are a K-4th grade student, tell us what it would look like if your family (or a family you know) could get all of the health care it needed. Do this with a drawing, painting, or story.

If you are a 5th-12th grade student, tell us how you would convince someone to provide health care to your family or a family you know.

5th-8th grade: submit a personal narrative or a persuasive letter or essay.

9th-12th grade: submit a video (DVD) or a persuasive letter, or essay.

How do you enter?

Mail submissions to:
Susanne Bennett
Tennessee Justice Center
301 Charlotte Ave.
Nashville, TN 37201

Or email written submissions to:
sbennett@tnjustice.org

Include your name, age, address, phone number, and school's name.

*By submitting an entry, the entrant indicates his or her agreement to comply with the contest rules.

Learn more here: www.tnjustice.org

What are the judges looking for?

Artwork winners will be selected based on the creativity and artistic skill of the work and how well they address the topic.

Written submissions will be selected based on clarity, persuasiveness, and how well they address the topic.

Winners will be contacted by 4/2/11.

Deadline: February 15, 2011

Contest Rules:

- All work must be original
- Artwork can be submitted via the U.S.P.O. or electronically in JPG format, only.
- Your submission will not be returned to you.
- TJC must be permitted to share your name and work publicly.