<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CoverTN</td>
<td>Small businesses with 50 or fewer full-time “equivalent” employees, 50% of whom earn less than $55,000 per year, can provide insurance for eligible employees who choose to buy into the plan. The business pays at least 1/3 of premiums, and must not have offered (or substantially financed) insurance in the last 6 months. Self-employed, workers at non-participating employers, those between jobs, and spouses also eligible. www.covertn.gov/web/covertn_eligible.html</td>
<td>CoverTN plans are considered “limited benefit” plans, with annual benefits limited to $25,000. Basic health needs, including physician, pharmacy, and mental health services are covered. There is a 12 month pre-existing condition clause.</td>
<td>Total premiums may be shared among the employer, employee and the state and range from approximately $113 to $327 per month and. These premiums vary by age, weight, and tobacco use. There are copayments. A person could pay as little as $37 per month for their part of the premium.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CoverKids</td>
<td>Children under 19, pregnant women and infants who are at or below 250% of the FPL and who have been uninsured for at least 3 months previous to application are eligible.* Applicants who earn over 250% can choose to buy into the plan. *Exceptions to the 3 month go bare period include children experiencing an involuntary loss of insurance (such as losing Medicaid/ TennCare) and newborns under 4 months old.</td>
<td>Provides comprehensive coverage modeled on the state employee health plan. There are no pre-existing condition clauses. Not a Medicaid program. No EPSDT protections.</td>
<td>Those earning up to 250% FPL pay no premiums but do have co-pays, many as low as $5. A pregnant woman’s coverage is limited to maternity benefits only. Those earning over 250% pay full premiums ($268-$341/month/child) and co-pays.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AccessTN</td>
<td>Adults who are uninsurable by medical or insurance determination, who have not been insured for at least 3 months (with some exceptions) previous to application, and who do not have access to employer insurance, may be eligible regardless of income. There are special rules for those losing COBRA, TennCare or CoverKids.</td>
<td>Provides comprehensive coverage modeled on the state employee health plan. 6-month pre-existing condition wait period, but no wait for preventative care, pharmacy benefits, or outpatient therapy.</td>
<td>Premiums vary from $284 to $1,225/ month and are based upon age, weight, and tobacco use. Premium assistance has been available for the low income uninsured, but there is currently a waiting list for these funds.</td>
</tr>
